The action taken by the Ideal directors of the World's Fair in regard to Sunday opening was put before the National Commission in writing at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The correspondence was referred to to-morrow. The matter thus goes over for one day. The Sunday opening question is claiming the attention of all the World's Fair officials. The National Commission has already passed upon the subject of considered, there is likely to be a division. It is not considered likely that the sentiment has charged ufficiently to give a report from the Judiciary Committee any approval or veto by a two-thirds vote. is necessary to amend the by-laws The Judiciary Committee itself is divided on the Sunday question, and this may result in the bringing in of a majority and a minority report. These will have to be read and considered by the commission. and action on the matter can hardly be expected before Friday or Saturday. Commissioner Massey, of Delaware, leads the Sunday-closing element in the mmission, while General St. Clair, of West Virginia, occupies a like position with the epeners.

Norwegians attended the Fair by thousands to-day. They began to come as soon as the gates were open this morning, and they kept on coming with increasing numbers until it seemed there certainty must an exodus from the kingdom of King Osear. came in whole families, from the grandmother to the infant of the last year. The majority, however, were big flaxen-haired men and flaxen-hadred, rosy-cheeked en, all of whom were come to celebrate th dedication of the Norwegian Building at the Fair, and to commemorate the separation of the Norwegian Kingdom from that of Denmark. Every year through out Norway May 17 is observed as a holiday, and the Norwegian citizens of Chicago and the subjects of King Oscar who have been preparing the exhibit thought it befitting to dedicate the national building on a national holiday. Norwegian societies began arrive in bodies toward noon, and each organi sation and club was headed by a military band. Two hours later the formal exercises were held in the festival hall. This hall has a seating capacity of 8,000, and standing room for 2,000 more, but it vas scarcely large enough to hold the The celebration began with the singing of the Norwegian national hymn: "Yes, Still Love This Land." The Earl of Aberdeen, who has been appointed Governor-General of Canada, paid an informal visit this afternoon to the Canadian pavilion at Jackson Park. The Earl was accompanied by the Countess of Aberdeen and a few others. As Governor-General of Canada the Earl will revisit the Fair in September. This was Minnesota's Day to dedicate at the World's Fair as well as Norway's. The spacious and handsome building among the family of States adjoining its southern sister, Louisiana, was filled with sons and daughters of the State as well as Fair visitors generally. The dedication exercises were held in the main reception room. The National Editorial Association attended a special performance at the Turkish Theatre in the M.dway Plaisoneo to day.

The third day of the World's Congress of Women shows no diminution of interest in this remarkable gathering, or rather series of gatherings. On the contrary, the audiences in the fifteen or eighteen convention halls this morning were the largest of the week. The session in the hall of Washington was opened at 10 o'clock, with Mrs. J. N. Crouse presiding on behalf of the United States, and Senoritis C. d'Alcais, of Spain, as the bonorary foreign president. The subject assigned for consideration for the opening hour was "The solidarity of Human Interests," and addresses on this topic were delivered by Isabelle B. Ecgolot, of France; Callerines Intern. of Greece, and Tauthe Vignier, of Switzerland, Schoftla d'Alcais told something about women in Spain during the last 400 years, and the Paroness Wilson, of Spain, and Mme. Quesada, of Peru, made interesting addresses upon women's position in the sonth American States. It was now nearly the hour for adjournment, but the women remained to be entranced with a story of the evolution of the Russian women, told in pretty broken English by Marie Stromberg, of Russia.

To-night's session was of remarkable interest, as Mrs. Ellen Foster presided and Julia Marlowe, Clara Morris, Georgic Cayvan, Helen Modjeska, Mme. Januschek and Mile, Rhea were on the programme for papers on subjects relating to the stage.

Of equal interest were the proceedings in Colambias Hall. Ernestine Frederickstein, of Denmark, was the foreign president, while Mary U. Sneddin presided as the representative of the women of the United States. The proceedings opened with the reading of a paper upon "Woman's Political Future," by Marie De Raismes, of France, and another upon "Our Debt to Zurich," by Dr. Emile Kempin, of Switzerland. There was a fund of information of value to reformers in the paper on the "Posttion of Women in Bohemia," which paper on the "Posttion of Women in Bohemia," which paper on the "Posttion of Women in Bohemia," which paper on the "Posttion of Women in Bohemia," which paper on the "Posttion of Women in the atomitry to enter public employments and the professions. GOOD WORK OF VOLUNTEER LIFE-SAVERS WOMAN'S TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Rockport, Mass., May 17,-The British schooner Os early this morning on the Little Salvages. She was seen at 5 o'clock by the lightkeeper at Straits Mouth Island, and a volunteer crew manned the lifeboat and were soon at the scene of the wreck, which was bung up high on the ledge. The captain and mate were on the Salvages and the crew of four men and the captain's wife were on the vessel. A line was thrown to one of the grew and he was builed on board the lifeboat in safety. The others of the crew, with the captain's wife, took to the schooler's boat and an attempt was made to haul the boat through the surf. The sea was running so high that sea. The sea was breaking high over the rocks, peatedly washed upon the rocks and made frantic efforts to ching to them, but at last became insensible. The lifeboat crew, who were making desperal efforts to reach her, were successful after a hard struggle, and by fastening a gaff into her clothing he was hauled on board in an unconscious and badly braised condition, but was resuscitated and will drowned in trying to reach the shore. The lifeboat ceeded in landing them safely. The Ossceo sailed from Moncton on May 6 with and coseco sailed from Moneton on May 6 with a cargo of sleepers for Boston. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS FOR CLUB DUES.

The members of the Actors' Amateur Athletic Association of America, more commonly known as the Five A's, were deeply moved yesterday. The most of them received cepies of the following notice:

"Dear Sir: A claim against you amounting to the sum of the pas been placed in my hands for collection. the Actor's Amateur Athletic Club of America, with instructions to institute legal proceedings to enforce the instructions to institute legal b-orcedings to enforce the same. Unless the amount due is forthwith remitted to me, such proceedings will be taken as the law affords. Awaiting an immediate reply, I am respectfully yours. "ALFRED D. LIND.

"Attorpey and Counseller-at-Law, 701 Broadeny."

"Attorney and Counseller-at-Law, Tol Broadway,"
These who received this notice took the liberty of regarding it as one of the most remarkable incidents in the history of clubs in New-York. The claims were both for dues and for house accounts. Some of those who were charged with a thing but regular dues said that they did not regard themselves as members of the club, as they had paid their dues to date long ago and asked that their names be taken off the books. On behalf of the club it was said that such an action as this could not be regarded as a formal resignation, which must be in writing in order to be recignized. The notice was sent to a large number of persons, many of them prominent actors and managers, and their wrath was minent actors and manuers, and their wroth wa great. The club is not so prosperous popular as it was for two or three years after it started its house in West Twenty-eighth-st. was burned a few months ago, and since then things do not seem to

THE OPPOSITION ANGERED BY APPLICATION OF THE CLOSURE.

A BUTTER DEBATE OVER THE AMENDED SEC OND CLAUSE OF THE HOME RULE BILL-

THE FINAL VOTE 287 TO 125. Irish Legislature to enact laws, was passed today in Committee of the House of Commons as loyal and trustful toward the Government. amendment to the effect that the supreme power of the Imperial Parliament should remain un- won more by superiority of numbers. diminished by any proviso of the Home Rule The clause as amended was adopted by a vote of 287 to 225.

The debate preceding the division was testy and bitter. Chairman Mellor repeatedly called the members to order. When General Goldsworthy, Conservative, who was the last speaker, sat down, a dozen members of the Opposition arose recognize any of those who were anxious to speak Dr. Macetego: Liberal Member for Inverness-shire, moved the closure. The motion was carried by a vote of 281 to 220. The division followed with the result stated.

The application of the closure incensed the Opposition, and Mr. Gosehen, Chancellor of the Exchequer under Lord Salisbury, offered a motion, amid great excitement, to report progress. Mr. Goschen attacked the Government on the ground that Mr. Fowler, president of the Local invertment Board, who was the only Minister who had taken part in the discussion, had spoken at such a stage that no opportunity was given to the Opposition to reply to his atterances.

Mr. Gladstone repudiated the suggestion of unfairness on the part of the Government. He said that he had adhered to the rule never to propose or vote for the closure when the speech preceding the motion for closure was made by a Minister.

Several members here attempted to speak, and great disorder prevailed, ancry cries and counter cries being heard in different parts of the House. Chairman Mellor repeatedely called for order, but his appeals were unheard, and at length Mr. Gosthen's motion was defeated by a vote of 299 to 211. Lord Randolph Churchill, speaking at Reading this evening, said that Mr. Gridstone had informed the leading Liberals at Midlothian that he would not contest that constituency again. This decision, soid Lord Randolpi, proved that Mr. Gladstone realized what a revolution of feeling had been produced against him by the Home Rule bill.

Miss Bend, who has been out in society for the last four years, has been out in society for the last four years, has been considered a great belle. Mr. Norrie is a young man of wenlth, having made a fortune through successful mining ventures. He returned from Mexico a few weeks ago from a trip which he made in the company of Lispeand blewar and others. Mr. Norrie was engaged once before to Mis Fannie Bostwick, now Mrs. Alfred Carstairs. The breaking of the second engagement is a great surprise to society for eighteen names than all fill one book. Commander Davis spent most of yesterday at the Navy Yard giving personal attention to niting the dispatch beat Dolphin for her trip to Sandy Hook today, and when the Spanish vessels are sighted she will go out to meet them and fire the usual salute. Commander Davis will board the cruiser Maria Christins mander Davis will board the cruiser Maria Christins broken by mutual consent. This engagement was announced about a month ago, and ten days ago Mrs.

HOW SHALL THE INFANTA BE RECEIVED !

THE CIRCULO COLON CERVANTES TO ACT INDE PENDENTLY OF COMMANDER DAVIS.

The Infanta Eulalie, who is expected to arrive here Friday, will have an excellent opportunity to observe how the American people "study to please" to be formally received by her host in the person of the President of the United States, and after this eremeny everything, including her route, the extent of her travels and the entertainments to be provided for her, will be arranged according to her wishes and pleasure. This fact of necessity makes any arrangements to receive and entertain her here or in other cities of a provisional nature. The good will of the people of this city, however, is shown in the preparations which are being made to give her a fitting welcome and to give a grand ball in her honor if she will accept these hospitalities. Among the patronesses of the ball, a list of which is given herewith, are many of the leading society women of this city, and the affair, if it takes place, will undoubtedly be worthy of the distinguished

Many people, however, who are anxious that the risit of the Infanta shall be marred by no misunderstanding, are fearful lest there shall be some frictio between the local committees and the Federal author ities. Commander Davis, who represents the United States as personal escort to the Infanta, thinks that all invitations to her should be given through him, and that she should accept no hospitalities except those of an official character. The committee in charge of the arrangements for the ball, acting under the advice of the sparish Minister, believe that the infanta will accept their invitation, especially as it will come from her fellow-countrymen, and they propose to go down the bay to meet her on their own account, and present to her their invitation, without reference to Commander Davis.

There is evidently a conflict of opinions and intentions, but it is believed that the willingness of both parties to leave everything to the wishes of the Infanta will prevent any serious difficulty. It may somewhat embarrassing to the Infanta, however, to decide what she will do.

Commander Davis arrived in this city Tuesday evening. He said yesterday to a Tribune reporter who saw him at the Hoffman House that beyond meeting and escorting the Infanta to Washington no programme for her had been arranged. own the bay on the Dolphin Friday," he said, "early in the day, so as to be sure to meet the Infanta as soon as she arrives. A special train of Pullman cars will be in waiting at the Pennsylvania Station. I do not know at what hour we shall start for Washington. That will be determined by the wishes of the Infanta. We may go early in the day if the steamship on which she arrives comes in early, or we may wait till ever ing. "The Infanta will be taken to aparaments, which have been changed for her at the Arlington, in Washington, and on Saturday she will be presented to Pre-ident and Mrs. Cleveland. Beyond this no programme has been arranged." How many are there in the party of the Infanta?"

was asked. "Five, I think. The Infanta, her husband and his secretary, and two ladles in waiting." "Then she has not a private band, as has been

No. There is a spanish military band on the steamship on which she is coming, bound for the World's Fair, but it is not in any way connected with her suite."

"It has been said that it is the feeling in Washington that the Infanta will accept no invitations of the United States," was suggested. "That is probable," said Commander Davis.

course the Infanta's own wishes will govern the mat ter entirely, but it would seem that etiquette would require an official guest to be officially received and It is probable that the Infanta will entertained. return to New-York after going to Washington. If so she will be the guest of the city, and be entertained by the Committee of One Hundred, which has an official character."
